Anti-bullying week

Next week we will be launching our Anti-Bullying weekly; raising children's awareness and understanding of bullying behaviours. Children will be discussing issues around bullying and how to deal with bullying behavior in and out of school.

Last year we sent home a leaflet for all parents, 'Say NO to bullying - A handbook for Parents' by Julie Casey M.Ed., C.Psychol. If you would like a further copy of this please let the office know and we will order.

Our Anti-bullying policy is reviewed annually and can be found on our website under our Behaviour Management Policy. If you need a hard copy please contact Mrs Hull who will be happy to supply this for you.

Indoor board games

Our supply of indoor games for wet playtimes is running short again. Please can I ask that if you are having a sort out before Christmas to donate any old games etc. to the school.

Safeguarding

This week Mrs Hammonds, On-line Safety co-ordinator, will be sending out a magazine for all children and families entitled, 'Digital Parenting.' This contains many useful sections on a variety of topics for all the family. Some of the topics, for example, 'Selfies vs. Sexting' may seem a little old for some of our children but this magazine is for the whole family and all the information will be useful for all our families. I would encourage you to read the articles and share what is appropriate with your children.

Please make sure that your child brings this home. There will be extra copies in the entrance hall if you require more.

Multi-use Games Area Help with raising funds

As part of encouraging our children to become more active and healthy, we would like to provide them with a hard surfaced multi-use game area. We have had some exciting plans drawn up and are now looking to raise funds for its construction. We are aware that some businesses will offer grants and sponsorships to good causes and are appealing to friends of the school to help us in finding these. If you work for a company that offers such funding opportunities or feel that you can help us at all, please call in to the office and let us know.

Poppies

We are selling poppies and also reflectors, wrist bands etc for Remembrance fundraising. If you would like your child to have an item, please send in donations. Full details on website
